

MS in Artificial Intelligence (YWCC) - Grace Wang Grace Wang gave her presentation on the proposed MS in Artificial Intelligence program. Explained why a new Masters in AI program is needed with articles in newspapers and job market predictions. Presented the current process and next steps after Faculty Senate approval would be program announcement with external review. Motion to approve: To move the program forward to next steps by G. Wang and seconded by M. Bandelt. A. Gerbessiotis commented that the program will be housed in the Data Science department. Motion was approved with 1 abstention.